IDEAS COMPETITION FOR STUDENTS

»A Vision for Europe«

What are the ideas that ignite young people's passion for Europe? What are the facts, arguments and experiences that can inspire Europeans to build a better Europe for tomorrow?

To find answers to these questions, the Friedrich Foundation (Friedrich Stiftung) and Saarland University are inviting students of all disciplines to take part in the competition »A Vision for Europe«. The competition is open to students at Saarland University and to students enrolled at a partner university in one of the international university alliances »Transform4Europe« or »University of the Greater Region (UniGR)«.

Submissions can take the following forms conceptual sketch, essay, literary work or graphic short story

Languages

German, English or French
