2. Wasserspiel im Bürgerpark

On the one hand, the water feature in Bürgerpark is reminiscent of the old Roman aqueducts or even the ruins of an industrial building. Nevertheless, one enjoys the refreshing experience when the water splashes alternately from the numerous jets.

3. Ludwigskirche

The Ludwigskirche is a landmark of the city and stands in the district of Alt-Saarbrücken. It is a Protestant church in baroque style and from the inside a real eye-catcher.

4. Nußbergdenkmal

International Office

The Nußberg Monument is a lookout point where you can get a beautiful view of the whole city. It was erected in 1931 for the fallen of the First World War.

5. Saarbrücker Schloss

Like the Ludwigskirche, Saarbrücken Castle is located in the Alt-Saarbrücken district and was also built in the Baroque style. Today, the castle serves as the administrative headquarters of the regional association.

6. Schlossgarten am Schloss

Not only Saarbrücken Castle itself, but also the imposing gardens, which were laid out as a baroque garden around 1760, are worth a detour.

7. St. Johanner Markt

International Office

The St. Johanner Markt with its boutiques, pubs, bistros and restaurants is the heart of Saarbrücken's life. The old town area has been a pedestrian zone since 1978.

8. Alte Brücke an der Saar

The Old Bridge is the oldest preserved bridge in Saarland. Accessible only to pedestrians and cyclists, it connects St. Johann with Alt-Saarbrücken.

9. Parkanlage am Staden

International Office

The Staden is a park-like area and recreational area. Many historical elements of the Staden are now protected monuments.

10. Hundeinsel an der Saar

International Office

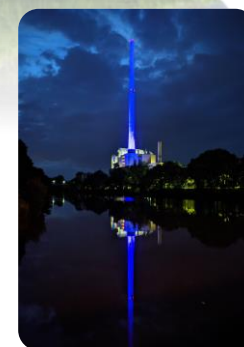

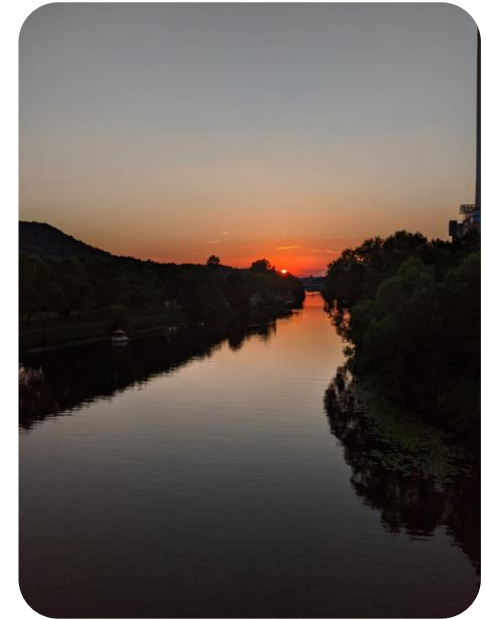

The dog island is a real paradise for dogs in the nature reserve at the East Bridge. A visit to the small island is a pleasure for man and dog.

11. Daarler Brücke und Ostspange

The Daarler Bridge is located in the St. Arnual district, and, like the Alte Brücke, it is only accessible to pedestrians and cyclists.

12. Mithraskapelle am Halberg und Schloss Halberg

The Mithras Chapel is a pagan chapel from the Roman times. It is one of only 19 preserved sanctuaries of the God Mithras in Germany. And even today it is a place of religious-historical commemoration.

13. Wildpark

In the Saarbrücken Wildlife Park, about 120 native and domestic wild animals live in species-appropriate enclosures spread over approximately 17 hectares in the St. Johann city forest.

14. Schwarzenbergturm

International Office

The Schwarzenberg Tower is a lookout tower on the Schwarzenberg Mountain.
It was built in 1930 and has been a listed building since 1996.
There you also have a great view over the city and the adjacent forest.
