The European Research Council (ERC)

When: Thursday, 05.05.2022 | 12.30 -1.30 p.m.

Where: Online event (Teams)

---

The European Research Council offers great possibilities for both young investigators and well-established researchers to receive funding for ground-breaking and innovative projects. This event will inform you about the ERC in general and will give you an overview on its different funding lines. Here, we primarily target young investigators given the upcoming deadline for Starting Grants in October 2022.
