

Table of contents

Preface	7
----------------	---

Part I Theoretical perspectives on EWCs

Chapter 1 European Works Councils as international non-profit-organisations: an organisational research approach to a crucial element of Europeanisation Markus Hertwig, Ludger Pries and Luitpold Rampeltshammer	13
---	----

Chapter 2 Approaching and theorising European Works Councils: comments on the emergence of a European multi-level-structure of employee involvement and participation Hans-Wolfgang Platzer	47
--	----

Chapter 3 European Works Councils: emergence of a European collective identity or still national bound actors? Volker Telljohann	71
--	----

Part II Country reports – The national-cultural embeddedness of EWCs and state of EWC research in selected countries

Chapter 4 European Works Councils activity in Poland Stanisław Rudolf and Karolina Stegemann	101
---	-----

Chapter 5 The regulatory politics of European Works Councils in the United Kingdom: the challenge of connecting Miguel Martínez Lucio	127
---	-----

Chapter 6
European Works Councils in France
Udo Rehfeldt	153
Chapter 7
European Works Councils in Spain
Holm-Detlev Köhler and Sergio González Begega	187
Chapter 8
European Works Councils in Germany
Luitpold Rampeltshammer and Nina M. Wachendorf	219
Part III
Case studies on EWCs in automotive companies
Chapter 9
Communication and solidarity in cross-cultural employee relations
Matthias Klemm and Jan Weyand	261
Chapter 10
A better understanding of European Works Council networks: the case of BMW and GM
Michael Whittall, Herman Knudsen and Fred Huijgen	281
Chapter 11
Cooperation versus competition: union and works council strategies in the Delta site-selection process at General Motors Europe
Martin Bartmann and Veronika Dehnen	301
Notes on the authors	329