If you haven't received your student id /
log-on details
yet...

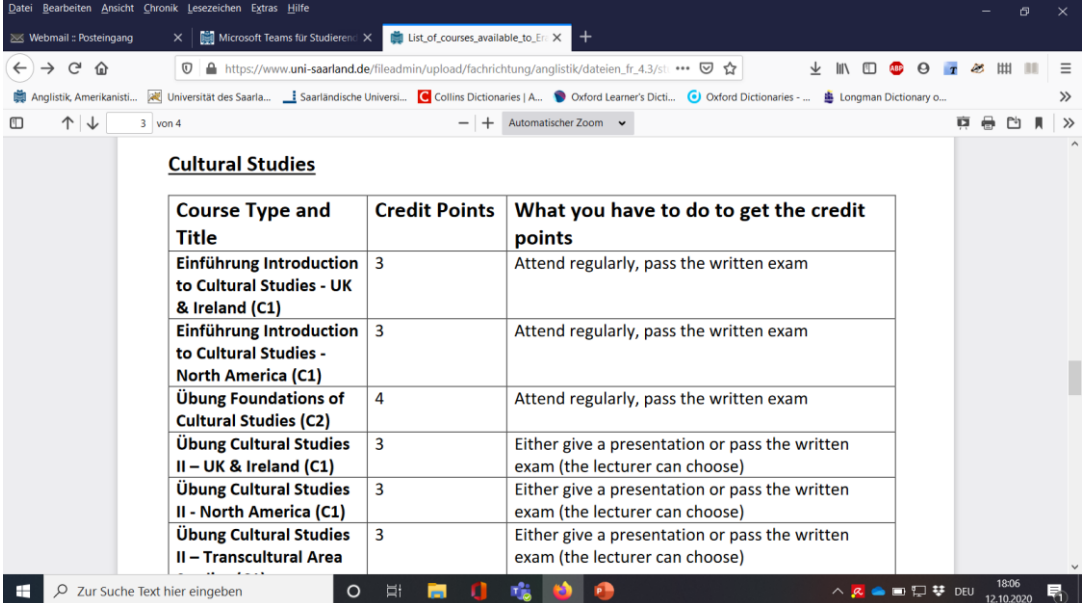

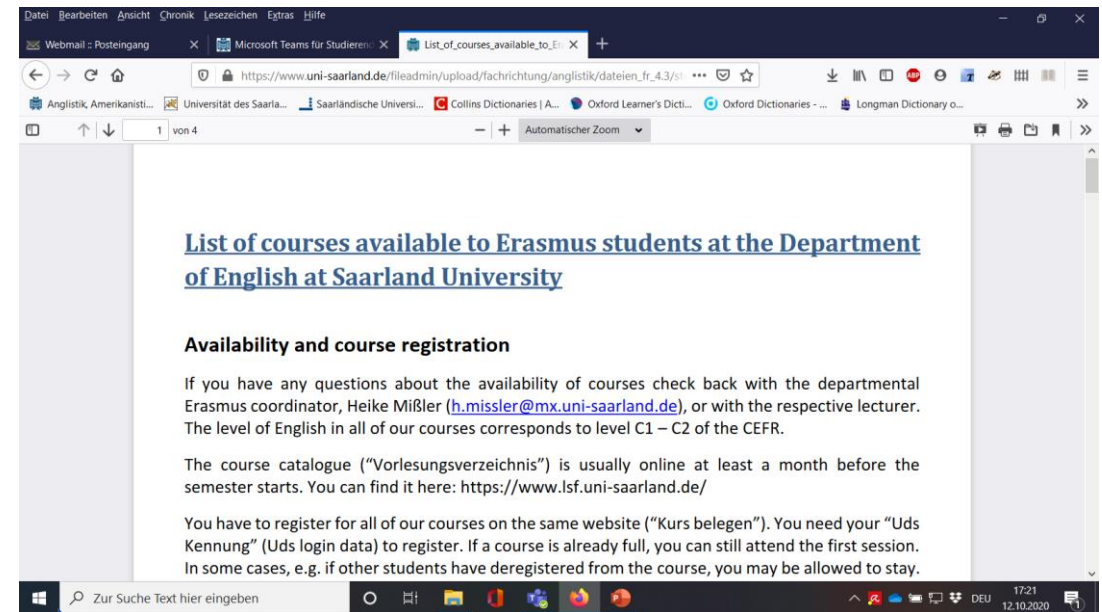

- Don't panic.
- Send an email to your lecturers and ask if you can take their course.
- Be there in the first session or send them an email to explain why you cannot be present in the first week.
- Register for the course as soon as you have your log-on details.

Moodle and MS Teams

- We use Moodle and MS Teams as learning platforms/online tools for teaching.
- You can access Moodle here:
<https://lms.sulb.uni-saarland.de/moodle/>
- For some Moodle courses you might need an enrolment key: ask your lecturer.
- You can use MS Teams (part of the Microsoft Office package) in your browser or download the app: <https://teams.microsoft.com>
- Further information about MS Teams is available on the university website.

What's a Schein?

- Schein = certificate which proves that you've completed a course
- Check out this helpful document (available on our website – under “Student Services” and “Information for Incoming Erasmus Students” and on my office door)
- If you need the Schein asap after courses end, please let your lecturers know in advance
- You are responsible for collecting your certificates from your lecturers and forwarding them to the International Office, where your transcript of records will be issued.

Course Type and Title	Credit Points	What you have to do to get the credit points
Einführung Introduction to Cultural Studies - UK & Ireland (C1)	3	Attend regularly, pass the written exam
Einführung Introduction to Cultural Studies - North America (C1)	3	Attend regularly, pass the written exam

Übung Cultural Studies II – Transcultural Area	3	Either give a presentation or pass the written exam (the lecturer can choose)

Improving your English and/or your German...

- Take courses at the university's language center (Sprachenzentrum) - depending on your level, this might be a suitable alternative or addition to our courses.
- Meet new people via the university's Welcome Centre and ZiS (Zentrum für international Studierende).
- Go to one of the Irish pubs on St. Johanner Markt or head straight to the bars and restaurants in Nauwieser Viertel.
