4th Teachers' Day: Grammar Rules?

Workshop Michael Lewis

The shock of real English

Most modern corpora are designed to show the supposedly typical patterns of the language. I will present real, often amusing examples of what is interesting - examples which challenge EFL 'rules'; words which 'don't exist'; examples which give clues to how we store language in our brains; evidence of the variability of idioms; creative use of language. Will, I think, shock, surprise, amuse and perhaps even change your idea of 'real English' forever!
