5th Teachers' Day: Behaviour Rules?

Workshop Harald Weisshaar

Mediation and Intercultural Competence

In this workshop, I will focus mainly on the question of everyday situations and successful communication. We will take a look at a number of "exercises" that will enable students to become better mediators – both in written and spoken English. Participants will be shown how to select texts that might be helpful to raise intercultural awareness. Finally, the issue of film and intercultural competence will be addressed.
