5th Teachers' Day: Behaviour Rules?

Talk Ben Donald

Sunloungers at dawn - England vs Germany: cultural clashes from the beach to the bedroom

Starting with a survey of Anglo-German relations from the late 18th century to post-World War II, this presentation gives an overview of the stereotypes with which the British have traditionally looked at Germany and the Germans. By holding up a mirror to Germany and to Britain with its love of friendly xenophobia, we will examine what has changed, what is here to stay, and what is to be embraced about the stereotypes that exist for better or worse.
