5th Teachers' Day: Behaviour Rules?

Talk Barry Tomalin

Visiting the UK- things your teacher never told you!

Every country has its own way of doing things and the UK is no different. Welcome to Britain, where recycling is a myth, being on time is an aspiration, 'muddling through' is still a virtue, and where you can get an answer to your question -providing you ask it in the right way. This presentation introduces you to the 'British way', tells you what the British believe is important, how to make a good impression, how to make a bad one and demolishes a few folk myths on the way.
