(El curso de español podría tener cambios en sus fechas de inicio y termino / The Spanish course may have changes in its start and finish dates)

The Universidad Mayor has a Spanish Program for Foreign Students at this time. The level of Spanish-language proficiency of foreign exchange students in international exchange programs must be good enough for the students to be successful both socially and academically in Chile. At Universidad Mayor international students can take an intensive course of one-month Spanish classes (100 hours).

The Intensive Spanish as a Second Language Program consists of a cultural and linguistic immersion course set within the Chilean context. By way of systematic and practical classes students will acquire the tools to become proficient in both written and spoken Spanish. There are three levels: Beginners, Intermediate and Superior/ 100 hours of class over 4 weeks (5 hours a day).
