Dormitories of the Studentenwerk

An overview of the dormitories is available online: www.studentenwerk-saarland.de/Wohnen

The dormitories offer different kinds of accommodation: single apartments, rooms in shared housing („Dublette“) and family housing.

Applications for all dormitories are only available online: <https://tl1host.eu/SWSB/#home>

Please note: PhD students cannot apply for the Studentenwerk dormitories.

The rooms are assigned on a first come first serve basis, which means there is a waiting list for the rooms. You should expect a waiting time of at least one to two semesters.

Private dormitories

Saarbrücken has several private dormitories, as well as lots of rooms offered by local housing companies. Students need to apply directly with the providers for a room:

Immobiliengruppe Saar: www.sib-saarbruecken.de/wohnen

Wohnheim der ESG: www.waldhausweg7.de

Cusanushaus: www.cusanustreff.de

Wohngesellschaft Saar: www.freundlich-wohnen.de

Search on the private market

If a student cannot get a room in the dormitories or live with a family member, it is necessary to look for a room or an apartment on the private market.

Please note: private rooms and apartments are usually not furnished, unless stated otherwise in the offer.

Tips for your accommodation search:

“Kaltmiete” means the basic rent. Heating and electricity is normally not included.

“Warmmiete” usually includes heating, often also the electricity.

“Möbliert” means that an offer is fully furnished, whereas “unmöbliert“ is accommodation without furniture and often also without a kitchen.

“Zwischenmiete” or “Untermiete” means that you sublet a room; you make a contract with the official tenant of the room. This is contract for a limited period of time.

“Kaution” is the deposit and it is quite normal to pay a deposit that is equal to two months of rent. The deposit is paid back at the end of the contract.

“WG” is a typical student housing form in Germany; it stands for “Wohngemeinschaft” and means that two or more people have a private bedroom each but share the kitchen and bathroom.

“Kündigungsfrist”: This is the period of time within which you need to give written notice, which means to inform your landlord about your decision to move out. Usually this period is three months – unless the contract states something different!
