

In addition to regular classes, you can also choose to attend a German course during your stay. There are three different options of German courses:

1-month intensive German Course

The Short Intensive German Course (around 20 hours per week) during the month before the respective semester (March or September). The course gives 6 ECTS credits.

Course duration: one month, March and September

Cost: For Exchange Students: 180 EUR
For Freemovers: 300 EUR

Link: www.uni-saarland.de/global/deutschkurse/kurzintensiv.html

Non-intensive semester courses (2-4 hours per week)

This course runs during the semester and can accompany courses from your study program. The courses give 3 or 6 ECTS credits.

Course duration: Summer Term: mid-April - end of July
Winter Term: mid-October – mid-February

Cost: Free of Charge for exchange and freemover students

Link: www.uni-saarland.de/global/deutschkurse/semesterkurse/kursangebot.html

Semester-long Intensive Course

The Intensive German Course (around 20 hours per week), which can give you 24 ECTS or 32 ECTS credits if you complete all modules successfully.

Course duration: Summer Term: March – end of July
Winter Term: September – mid-February

Cost: For Exchange Students: 0 EUR
For Freemovers: 300 EUR

Link: <https://www.uni-saarland.de/einrichtung/isz-saar/dsh-kurse.html>

If you want to attend this semester-long intensive course, please also submit the respective registration form. You can find the form in the list of application documents as well:
Language Course Application Form