

Job advertisement

Student Assistant in Human Geography

At the earliest possible opportunity, the Junior Professorship of Human Geography with a European focus is seeking to fill two positions of Student Assistant (without degree) (m/w/d)

with 12 hours per week, fixed-term until 31.10.2024

Tasks and Activities

- Support for the BMBF research project „UrbanMetaMapping“, <https://urbanmetamapping.uni-bamberg.de/en/project/sozialkartographie.html> particularly in relation to:
- Archival research and data entry: contacting city archives, searching for meta data/signatures for archive material and entering data into an online platform.
- Support with the organisation of an international conference (logistics and communication with participants, etc.). Working language is English.
- Working with geographic information systems (QGIS) and testing and developing appropriate training material.
- Support in the preparation and implementation of research in the field of human geography.

Applicant requirements

- Very good knowledge of English and German
- Excellent communication skills
- Confident handling of MS Office (Word, Excel, Teams)
- Knowledge of geographic information systems (GIS) is advantageous
- Ability to work independently and reliably with great attention to detail
- Ability to work in a team, commitment and willingness to learn

Please apply with your CV and letter of motivation (as a single PDF) by 13.12.23 by E-Mail to carol.ludwig@uni-saarland.de

Please contact Dr Carol Ludwig for further information or if you have any questions.