

Conference: Industrial heritage and the traces of industrialization in urban space,
6th May 2025, Katowice

6. May 2025, Katowice (spinPLACE)

9.00-9.30	Welcome, official opening
9.30-9.50	Michel Depeyre: Les terrils miniers, des traces encombrantes de l'industrialisation? Mining Spoils: Burdening Traces of Industrialization?
9.50-10.10	Pierre-Olivier Mazagol: Saint-Étienne as seen by "Le Juge Fayard dit « le Shériff »": when cinema reveals the city's industrial heritage
10.10-10.30	Sarah-Catherine Reault: Heritages Miniers et Industriels Dans Une Zone de Frontiere en Guerre: Apports Historiques et Questions Autour de Deux Villes du Bassin du Don: Donesk et Lougansk Mining and Industrial Heritage in a War Border Zone: Historical Contributions and Questions Surrounding Two Cities in the Don Basin: Donetsk and Luhansk
10.30-10.50	Robert Pyka, Krzysztof Bierwiazzonek: The post-industrial site as an innovation place. Combining social innovations with industrial heritage conservation
10.50-11.30	Discussion & Break
11.30-11.50	Birgit Metzger: Experiences and emotions related to deindustrialisation. A case study of an industrial town in the French-German border area
11.50-12.10	Tobias Schank, Alessandro Kiefer: Metal on Metal: Repurposing the Aesthetics of Industrial Heritage in the Saarland Underground Metal Scene
12.10-12.30	Joana Baumgärtel: The Impact of Mining on Workers' Settlements and Homeownership Strategies in Saarland Topographic and Social Space Formation after 1945

Development of internationalization at the University of Silesia in Katowice by Transform4Europe alliance

12.30-12.50	Piotr Boroń: A forgotten Heritage - Silver and lead mining centre on the Silesian - Lesser Poland border in the early Middle Ages
12.50-14.00	Discussion & Lunch
14.00-14.20	Pablo Marti: From industrial site to urban space: the transformation of San Vicente del Raspeig's old cement factory
14.20-14.40	Henry Kuningas: Cleaning up history? Approaches to the layers of Estonian industrial heritage in the renovation proces
14.40-15.00	Lukáš Chwistek: Cultural-led regeneration of Lower Vítkovice and popularization of industrial heritage for tourism in the Moravian-Silesian region Co-authored with Dr. Jan Macháček; including insights based on research by Dr. Ondřej Slach and Dr. Vojtěch Bosák
15.00-15.20	Laura Castro: The Cultural Transformation of Industrial Heritage in Greater Porto, Portugal
15.20-15.50	Discussion & Break
15.50-16.10	Alicja Stelmach – Tardy: Résilience territoriale. Approche Systémique de gestion des risques collectifs Territorial resilience: a systematic approach to managing collective risks.
16.10-16.30	Aleksandra Nadgórska-Socha: Bioaccumulation and toxicity of heavy metals. A Soil–Plant System in the light of field and laboratory studies, the case study in brownfield Katowice Szopienice
16.30-16.50	Lucyna Sadzikowska: The Szopienice Community in the Face of the Effects of Lead Poisoning in the 1970s - Attitudes and Knowledge (Humanistic Approach)
16.50-17.20	Discussion & closing remarks

PARTNERS:

- Centre for Research on the Heritage of Jurisprudence and Law Practice, University of Silesia in Katowice
- Observatory of Urban and Metropolitan Processes

Development of internationalization at the University of Silesia in Katowice by Transform4Europe alliance