

Lifelong Learning
Programme

Call for Papers

Prof. Dr. Thomas Giegerich, LL.M., Director of the Europa Institut and Jean Monnet Professor of European Law and European Integration at Saarland University, calls for papers in order to publish them on the Online-Blog Jean-Monnet-Saar (<http://jean-monnet-saar.eu>).

Jean-Monnet-Saar

In order to make European Law and issues concerning European Integration accessible and understandable not only to an academic audience but also to the broader public, the Chair operates the Online-Blog Jean-Monnet-Saar. This is in accordance with the concept of the Lifelong Learning Programme of the European Commission

Possibilities of Publication

In addition to insights into the Jean-Monnet Chair's activities, Jean-Monnet-Saar presents analyses and comments in three categories about current and interesting questions of European Law. Interdisciplinary contributions are also welcome.

Saar Briefs

Saar Briefs are short and concise analyses about current discourses in the field of European Integration, the actual and potential development of European Law.

Saar Blueprints

Saar Blueprints are part of an e-paper-series, which provides the opportunity, especially to junior academics, to analyse and comment on questions of European Integration. These contributions should consist of around 4.000 to 6.000 words.

Saar Expert Papers

Saar Expert Papers are a collection of academic analyses written by specialists and published on the Blog for the general public. The contributions should consist of around 4.000 to 6.000 words.

Contact

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact Wiss. Mit. Oskar Josef Gstrein (o.gstrein@europainstitut.de). We look forward to receiving your contributions!