Direct Tax Officer (M/F)

Opportunity

As Direct Tax Officer, you will be mainly responsible for all direct tax compliance aspects of client companies active in various business sectors: real estate, holding and financing etc. The Direct Tax Officer reports to the Direct Tax Managers and to the Tax Director ultimately.

As a leading provider of solutions in trust and corporate management services, Intertrust currently employs some 2,400 experts spread across 30 countries. We have a very open structure designed to continuously challenge and present new opportunities for personal and professional growth at all levels.

Position

As Direct Tax Officer you will be responsible for a wide range of activities and your responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Preparing direct tax returns and calculate tax provisions for client companies
- Maintaining tax records and follow up on all filing deadlines related to taxes for client companies
- Supporting the accountants with respect to direct tax matters

Profile

We are looking for several individuals who:

- Have good analytical skills;
- Actively develop tax technical expertise;
- Are team-player and have a can do and pro-active attitude;
- Have good organization and prioritization skills;
- Have a bachelor degree in Accounting, Economics or Management, any specialization in Tax Accounting is considered as an asset;
- Are fluent in English, any other languages (French/German) are considered as an asset;
- Have between 2 and 3 years of relevant experience in the tax field in a Luxembourg Fiduciary, tax services provider or financial institution.

Call to action

If this position and our diverse company culture appeal to you, please apply directly via the ‘apply now’ button, providing us with your CV and cover letter.